

My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad

10 Lines, 100, 200, 300 & 500 Words

For Class 1 to 12, Matric, FSc & Board Exams

TopStudyWorld.com

Free Education for Every Pakistani Student

10 Lines on My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad PBUH

For Class 1 to 3

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) is the last messenger of Allah and the most beloved personality in Islam.

He was born in Makkah in 571 CE and belonged to the noble Quraish tribe.

He was known for his honesty and truthfulness even before prophethood, earning the titles of Sadiq and Ameen.

At the age of 40, he received the first revelation from Allah through Angel Jibreel in the cave of Hira.

He taught people about the oneness of Allah, justice, equality, and kindness to all creation.

Despite facing severe persecution, he remained patient and never responded to cruelty with cruelty.

He migrated from Makkah to Madinah and established an Islamic state based on brotherhood and justice.

His character was so perfect that even his enemies acknowledged his truthfulness and honesty.

He conquered Makkah peacefully and forgave all those who had persecuted him and his followers.

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) is a role model for all humanity, and following his teachings leads to success in this life and the hereafter.

Essay on My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad PBUH in 1

For Class 3 to 5

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) is my favourite personality and the greatest human being to ever walk on this earth. He was born in Makkah in 571 CE and received prophethood at the age of 40. Before prophethood, people called him Sadiq (truthful) and Ameen (trustworthy) because of his excellent character. He taught people about the oneness of Allah, justice, kindness, and equality. Despite facing severe hardships, he remained patient and compassionate. His teachings guide over two billion Muslims worldwide. Following his example leads to success and peace. He is truly the best role model for all humanity.

Essay on My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad PBUH in 2

For Class 5 to 8

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) is the most beloved and respected personality in my life. He was born in 571 CE in the city of Makkah. Even before receiving prophethood, he was known throughout Makkah for his honesty, kindness, and trustworthiness. People called him Sadiq (the truthful) and Ameen (the trustworthy) because he never lied or broke a promise. At the age of 40, he received the first revelation from Allah through Angel Jibreel in the cave of Hira. He began preaching the message of Islam, calling people to worship one Allah and abandon idol worship. He faced severe persecution from the leaders of Makkah but remained patient and steadfast. He migrated to Madinah where he established a just and peaceful society based on Islamic principles. Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was the perfect example of kindness, mercy, and compassion. He forgave his worst enemies, cared for the poor and orphans, and treated everyone with respect regardless of their status. His teachings about justice, equality, education, and good character continue to inspire billions of people worldwide. He is truly my favourite personality and the best role model for all humanity.

Essay on My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad PBUH in 3

For Class 8 to 10

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) holds the most special place in my heart as my favourite personality. Born in Makkah in 571 CE, he was orphaned at a young age and raised by his grandfather Abdul Muttalib and later his uncle Abu Talib. Despite the hardships of his childhood, he grew up to become the most noble and honest person in all of Arabia. Before receiving prophethood, Muhammad (PBUH) was known as Sadiq (the truthful) and Ameen (the trustworthy). People would leave their valuables with him because they trusted him completely. At the age of 40, he received the first revelation from Allah through Angel Jibreel while meditating in the cave of Hira. This marked the beginning of his mission as the last prophet of Islam. The early years of prophethood were extremely difficult. The leaders of Makkah opposed him fiercely, tortured his followers, and tried every method to stop his message. Despite these hardships, Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) never gave up and never responded to cruelty with cruelty. He remained patient, kind, and merciful throughout his life. In 622 CE, he migrated to Madinah where he established an Islamic state based on justice, brotherhood, and equality. The Constitution of Madinah ensured the rights of all citizens including non Muslims. He united warring tribes and created a peaceful society that became a model for the entire world. Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was perfect in every aspect of life. He was a loving husband, caring father, just ruler, brave leader, and compassionate teacher. He forgave those who wronged him, fed the hungry, cared for orphans, and treated servants like family members. His character was so extraordinary that the Quran describes him as a mercy for all worlds. Following his teachings and Sunnah is the key to success in this life and the hereafter. He will forever remain my favourite personality and greatest source of inspiration.

Essay on My Favourite Personality Prophet Muhammad PBUH in 5

For Class 9 to 12 & FSc

Introduction

Among all the great personalities in human history, Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) stands supreme as the most influential, noble, and beloved figure. He is not only my favourite personality but also the favourite of over two billion Muslims around the world. Born in Makkah in 571 CE, he transformed the entire Arabian Peninsula and left a legacy that continues to guide humanity today. His character, teachings, and example make him the perfect role model for people of all ages and backgrounds.

Early Life and Character

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was born into the noble Quraish tribe of Makkah. He lost his father before birth and his mother at the age of six, making him an orphan at a very young age. He was raised by his grandfather Abdul Muttalib and later by his uncle Abu Talib. Despite the difficulties of his childhood, he developed an extraordinary character that set him apart from everyone else. Even before receiving prophethood, Muhammad (PBUH) was the most trusted person in Makkah. People called him Sadiq (the truthful) and Ameen (the trustworthy). He never lied, never cheated, and never broke a promise. Merchants would leave their valuables with him, knowing they would be safe. He was known for his kindness to the poor, generosity to the needy, and compassion toward all living beings.

Prophethood and Mission

At the age of 40, while meditating in the cave of Hira on Mount Noor, Angel Jibreel appeared to him with the command to read. This event marked the beginning of his prophethood and the revelation of the Holy Quran. Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) began preaching the message of Islam, calling people to worship one Allah and abandon idol worship. He taught justice, equality, honesty, and compassion. The leaders of Makkah opposed him fiercely. They mocked him, tortured his followers, imposed economic boycotts, and even attempted to kill him. Despite facing immense persecution, Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) remained patient and never responded to violence with violence. He prayed for the guidance of his enemies and treated everyone with dignity and respect.

Migration and Establishment of Islamic State

In 622 CE, Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) migrated from Makkah to Madinah. This migration, known as the Hijrah, marked the beginning of the Islamic calendar. In Madinah, he established an Islamic state based on the principles of justice, brotherhood, and equality. The Constitution of Madinah guaranteed the rights of all citizens, including non Muslims, and became a model of peaceful coexistence. He united the warring tribes of Madinah and created a strong, peaceful community. Under his leadership, Islam spread rapidly across the Arabian Peninsula. He conquered Makkah peacefully in 630 CE and forgave all those who had persecuted him for years. This act of mercy and forgiveness demonstrated his extraordinary character.

Perfect Character and Legacy

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) was a perfect human being in every role he played. As a husband, he was loving and respectful. As a father, he was gentle and caring. As a leader, he was just and merciful. As a teacher, he was patient and wise. He treated his servants like family, fed the hungry with his own hands, and visited the sick regularly. His sayings (Hadith) and actions (Sunnah) provide guidance for every aspect of life. He emphasized the importance of education, cleanliness, kindness to neighbors, respect for elders, and care for the environment. The Quran describes him as a mercy for all worlds, and his life truly exemplifies this description.

Conclusion

Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him) is without doubt the greatest personality in human history and my most beloved role model. His honesty, kindness, patience, courage, and devotion to Allah inspire me every day. In a world filled with challenges and confusion, his teachings provide clear guidance for living a righteous and meaningful life. I strive to follow his Sunnah and earn his intercession on the Day of Judgment. May Allah grant us all the ability to follow the beautiful example of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and live our lives according to his teachings.

Thank You for Reading!

Visit TopStudyWorld.com for more free essays, notes, guide books, and past papers.

www.topstudyworld.com/pk/essay/